

Social Media Writing Prompt

You are starting a blog in German about your study exchange in Germany where you will spend a year. You need to write an introduction for the beginning of your blog that readers will see when they visit your site. Use full sentences and be sure to include:

- a formal greeting to your group of readers
- your name
- what city you come from
- something about yourself (age? character? how things are going?)
- a question for your readers

Note: If you start a real blog on your class website or on your own, include photos of your city or town. You can also introduce some important people in your life.

Evaluation Rubric

Your teacher or a classmate may complete the Evaluation Rubric for you. Or you can use it to evaluate yourself!

Kategorie	Ausgezeichnet 4	Gut 3	Ausreichend 2	Muss besser sein 1
Kommunikation	Student communicated effectively.	Student's communication was somewhat effective.	Student made an attempt at correct communication.	Student did not complete the assigned tasks or work was incoherent.
Wortschatz, Rechtschreibung und Grammatik	There are no mechanical or grammar errors in the communication.	There are minimal errors in the communication.	There are several errors in the communication.	There are many errors in the communication.
Kreativität und Kultur	The project clearly exhibits creativity and cultural sensitivity.	The project is somewhat creative and shows some cultural sensitivity.	The project has limited creativity and little sensitivity to German culture.	There is no creativity and/or cultural sensitivity exhibited.